Life is forward in Central Surrey.

Living at Quinn is fast or slow, quiet or vibrant. In this residential pocket close to Surrey's Central City, 174 one- to two-bedroom + den condos by Porte Homes keep life open to possibilities.

Absorb the energy of one of Metro Vancouver's fastest growing cities, picnic on some green space in neighbouring Queen Elizabeth Meadows Park, or zip away to another exciting destination on rapid transit.

NEIGHBOURHOOD

Function and quality are behind all that style.

Clean and contemporary is a theme inside and out at Quinn – so is thoughtful design and quality materials. Home is a place for comfort, joy, and inspiration, whatever your lifestyle.

Porte has been serious about real estate since 1968. And in those 53+ years, we've learned we aren't just developing or managing properties, we're helping build communities. It's a labour of love that carries a great amount of responsibility–one we take very seriously.

HOMES

A Surrey home that's open to life.

How you live is just as important as where you live. Homes at Quinn are clean and minimal, bright and spacious so you can inject your own unique flair.

Big kitchens make way for full-size appliances, a pantry wall, an island, dining, and all those food experiments you'll share on Instagram.

Space is a theme throughout, with bedrooms large enough for a king-size, plenty of storage, walk-in closets, and outdoor balconies great for entertaining.

The building's façade is welcoming, warm, and confident, all at the same time. Black-framed windows stand out against white and grey tones, and wood accents add a touch of nature to home.

Slide into community spirit right at home. Amenities at Quinn include a fitness centre, indoor and outdoor lounges, barbecues, a firepit, garden plots and a children's play area. (we don't have a dog area

Amenities you love.
