Wander along to your favourite coffee shop for your morning latte, then saunter over to do some shopping in your neighbourhood supermarket. The luxurious finishes of Aria 2 again define what fine living really is all about. If you are looking for luxury, pampering comfort and opulence, here it is, just waiting for you. And the superb seaside location truly places its indelible mark on Suter Brook where nature and architectural finesse subtly co-exist in the jewel of Port Moody.

Suter Brook is superbly located within the heart of Port Moody close to the corner of St. Johns Street and Ioco Road. You are within walking distance to the recreation centre, city hall, tennis courts, swimming pool, library and much much more. Across the street along the lapping waters of Burrard Inlet you can while the hours' away beachcombing at Inlet Park and Rocky Point Park. From mountain lakes to arts and culture at the Port Moody Arts Centre, it is all yours for the taking.

“A master-planned urban village in Port Moody is yours to call home.”

Suter Brook is an entrancing village where you can stroll along creek side trails or along tree-lined boulevards to meet new friends. For village life means moving closer to the true essence of who you are. When you need to leave your village home, you are a quick commute to the Lower Mainland's major access points. The West Coast Express will speed you into downtown Vancouver in 22 minutes, and a proposed Light Rapid Transit, a five minute stroll from Suter Brook will connect with Lougheed Town Centre. Nearby Coquitlam and Port Coquitlam offer major shopping and services, so at Aria 2 at Suter Brook, you are close to nature: close to it all; that is Aria at Suter Brook.

For a brief time thirty years ago I lived in the sleepy village of Port Moody. The forested mountains still provide a majestic backdrop, the inlet waters dream along as always, and the City of The Arts is now a thriving vibrant village with all the trappings of the big city. In this setting, The Onni Group of Companies has created a master-planned village called Suter Brook on 22 acres, where west coast lifestyle can be enjoyed in an interactive, people-oriented village. Redefine your life here!

Salmon-bearing Suter Brook which runs through the centre of the community provides both the name and the counterpoint for this new urban village. With a mix of low-rise, high-rise, commercial and office space, as well as a boutique hotel, this pivotal Port Moody site is being transformed into a pedestrian-friendly neighbourhood, where everything is close at hand. Stroll along the tree-lined central plaza and immerse yourself in the ambience of this welcoming village, or commune with nature as you saunter along the banks of Suter Brook. All of this stress reduction, courtesy of the master-planned community of Suter Brook.
