Original Art Tells A Story of Wood at Anderson Walk North Shore

As part of its long-standing commitment to the arts, Polygon has collaborated with North Vancouver sculptural artist Brent Comber to create custom artwork for each lobby at Anderson Walk North Vancouver apartment buildings. Bold and modern, the wood based pieces evoke the Central Lonsdale North Shore's natural forest surroundings and tree lined boulevards while representing themes of reflection, renewal and energy. Adding warmth, movement and texture to the space here at North Vancouver Anderson Walk condos for sale, the Shattered and Alder series will inspire a deeper connection to the natural world. "By infusing nature with architecture and design, Anderson Walk North Vancouver brings elements of the outside in, creating a space that is ideal for reflection and imagination." Brent Comber.

Honouring a Lonsdale Legend

Built on the former site of Lonsdale Elementary School, Polygon's Anderson Walk North Vancouver apartment development takes its name from one of the school's most esteemed educators, Dr. Henrietta Anderson. From 1922 to 1933, she was a teacher and principal at Lonsdale Elementary School. Described as brilliant, witty and an inspiration, Dr. Anderson became a voice for educational reform, championing physical education, public speaking, and technical training for girls. In 1933, Dr. Henrietta Anderson was the first recipient of the BC Teacher Federation's G.A. Fergusson Memorial Award recognizing her outstanding contribution to public education in British Columbia.

Anderson Walk is Built Right by Polygon

The quality homes at Anderson Walk North Vancouver real estate district are built with care by Polygon Anderson Walk Homes Ltd. The Polygon family of companies, British Columbia owned and operated since 1980, has built more than 18,000 homes throughout the Lower Mainland. With after sales service by a legendary Customer Service team and comprehensive 2/5/10 warranties from the Travelers Guarantee Company of Canada, a home by Polygon such as at the Anderson Walk North Vancouver real estate development offers greater peace of mind. The Polygon family has significant connections with the North Shore community as many of its staff members, from the President to on-site construction supervisors, are long term residents of the area. As a result, Polygon is deeply committed to ensuring the North Shore remains a vibrant, naturally beautiful place to call home.
