Here's an excellent selection of comfortable suites with a winning combination of affordability, location and style.

What a location!

A quiet, tree-lined street in the West End, but close to all the great features that make living in this area of Vancouver so popular.

You're just steps away from shopping, trendy cafes and elegant dining. A short stroll brings you to English Bay beaches and the entrance to Stanley Park.

As a home and as a secure investment in your future, make your choice the Chartwell.
