so much, so close

the right address, like the right attire, will take you places in life – places like granville island and meinhardt for gourmet groceries, williams-sonoma to stock your pantry, dkny, maxmara and restoration hardware for retail therapy.

last-minute client meeting? no problem. you can be downtown in minutes and back in time to meet friends for tapas at bin 942 or sun tan tuna and sapporo at tojo's. followed by a critically acclaimed play at the stanley theatre or improv at the arts club. then call it a day with a nightcap at joey's. the only problem? with everything so close to home, you'll have no excuse for being fashionably late.
