LARGE MAP

Located between Burrard Inlet and majestic mountain ranges, North Vancouver is defined by its spectacular natural surroundings.

Although just a short drive to downtown Vancouver, nature surrounds and outdoor amenities are countless with an abundance of mountain trails, parks and forests to explore. Lynn Canyon, Mount Seymour, Lower Seymour Conservation Reserve, Deep Cove, Grouse Mountain, Capilano Suspension Bridge – it's all right here. Whether you enjoy hiking, biking, skiing or boating, North Vancouver has venues for it all.

For more urban experiences, there's a great variety of restaurants, shops and services to explore in quaint neighbourhoods like Lynn Valley, Edgemont Village, Deep Cove and Lonsdale. On the waterfront, you can explore the bustling markets at Lonsdale Quay and enjoy a scenic commute to downtown Vancouver via the SeaBus. Plus, the numerous boutiques and dining experiences at Park Royal in West Vancouver are just a short drive away. North Vancouver also boasts quality educational institutions with reputable public and private elementary and secondary schools to choose from. It is also home to Capilano University.
