Englewood Courtyard is a 45+, adult gated condo community located in British Columbia's scenic Fraser Valley. Built exclusively for retiree's whom seek the most contemporary condo floor plans, services and retirement lifestyle.

Condos

Home / Condos

The west coast design style is very much in the heart of the Courtyard resort condos. From the outside of the condominium buildings you will notice a variety of striking features which include spacious over sized decks and balconies, large windows and glass railings that allow natural light to flow into each home in abundance. You will love the 9' ceilings and shaker style cabinets that lend to the resort style feeling that each Courtyard home has. These are homes of unequalled beauty, location and value.

Resort Quality Home Comfort

Chilliwack, British Columbia's beautiful resort-style recreational amenities provide plenty of reasons for going out. When it's time to come home, your Courtyard residence offers all the comforts you'd expect and more. Each residence boasts oversized windows, 9' ceilings, laminate floors, a designer kitchen, fireplaces and oversized covered balcony. With a commitment to the highest quality construction, materials and upscale finishes throughout, Englewood Courtyard promises a home you'll love at first sight!

Today's retiree is looking for a home that can provide ease of living options for today and in the future. Each Courtyard home provides built in complimentary "Saferhome" features that will provide value for both the homeowner of today and future ones to follow.

Creating an Active Adult Community

Together, Andrew Macdonald and Mark Perry, the partners in Englewood Courtyard are pleased to be leading an enthusiastic team of hardworking professionals. All are dedicated to providing Fraser Valley and Greater Vancouver baby boomers a comprehensive master planned adult lifestyle resort community.

Tribrink Contracting Ltd, Precision Building Design and Keystone Architecture are excited to work with the developers and build the "Platinum" Condominium homes within the gated adult community of Englewood Courtyard.

This is a team that has diligently researched and planned for a condo community with all bells and whistles that retiring baby boomers can wish for! Our team believes in the success of the Courtyard as an adult resort community exclusively for those 45 years and over.

Tribrink Contracting Ltd.

Colin, David and Michael van den Brink are Tribrink Contracting Ltd., the Project and Construction Manager of Englewood Courtyard. The partners are life-long Chilliwack residents and have been developing communities and building upscale townhomes, condos and single family homes in the Fraser Valley since 2002. Tribrink is a specialist builder who is the perfect fit to build the Courtyard Platinum condo community! Visit the Tribrink website...

Keystone Architecture

For nearly 25 years, Keystone Architecture has built a reputation of integrity and expert execution throughout its operations in the Fraser Valley and beyond. Keystone has worked extensively on a wide array of successfully delivered projects including multi-family residential, worship facilities, care facilities, commercial/retail, industrial, and mixed-use buildings.

Our mission and vision of "innovative designs, practical solutions" emphasizes our solutions-focused approach which enables our clients to realize the full potential of their projects; and enables us to exceed our clients' design expectations while remaining within their scheduling and budgetary constraints.

Precision Building Design

Precision Building Design Associates Ltd. is a small architectural building design firm in its 21st year of business operating from its base in Chilliwack, BC.

Precision's unique approach collaborates the individual market experiences in living architecture with the professional engineers and trades to continually improve on our habitat experiences. Our goal is to always balance cost efficiencies, life cycle impacts and building health and environment.

Externally, Precision team members are very involved in the community both in service groups, community development and sporting activities.
