The Good Life

With the success of The Heights townhome community, comes the exciting arrival of its new 66-condominium addition, Condos at The Heights.

Located in the heart of the desirable Grandview Heights community, Condos at The Heights is among one of the first collections of lovely South Surrey condos for sale.

It offers its residents ultimate convenience with a wide range of everyday amenities right at their doorstep.

Residents can walk outside to find grocery shopping, retail shopping, coffee shops and restaurants, schools, and parks all within a short walking distance. Additionally, public transportation, the highway and the US border are all accessible within minutes of driving.

Inside this beautiful collection of South Surrey condos, buyers will be quick to notice its spacious yet functional floorplans, immaculate interior details, luxury stainless steel appliance package, and open plan kitchens.

With amazing interior and exterior design features and a prime location in a greatly expanding community, Condos at The Heights really is the best value among condos for sale in Surrey.

Come visit our presentation centre to view what many consider as the most beautiful collection of new condos in Surrey.

Higher Standards

Taste + Style

Meet the Builder

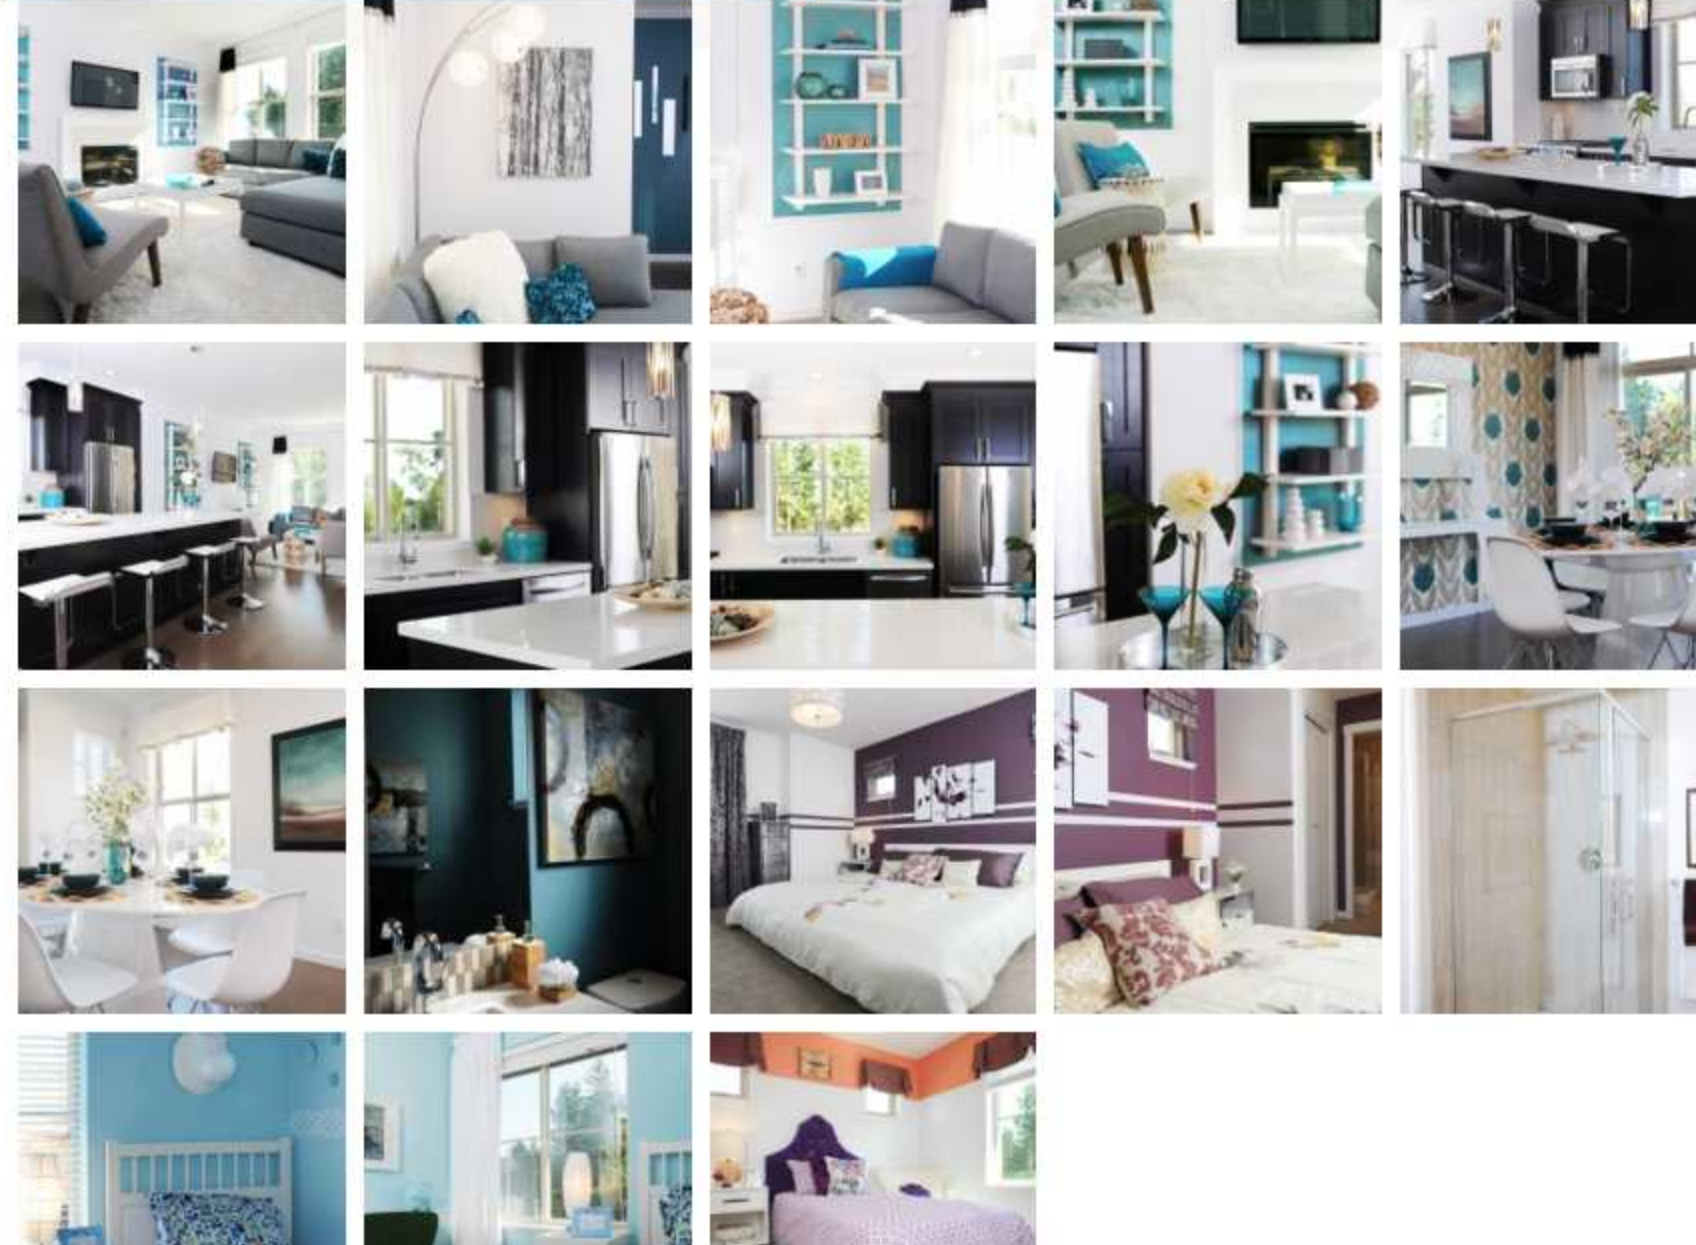

Forty years is a long time in the homebuilding industry, and at Lakewood, it's given us the advantage of insight. Today we're on the cutting edge of quality home construction, with many accolades for our award winning residential communities.

Homes are for life, and the homes we build are sturdy, durable and attractive, inside and out. We've earned the trust of our buyers and the respect of our competitors because we believe when it comes to quality, there's no room to compromise. At Lakewood, our signature says it all: quality workmanship and attention to detail – every step of the way.

Central Access

Minutes from major thoroughfares like Highway 99 and King George Boulevard, life at The Heights is about easy access to the Lower Mainland's hotspots. Head south to the nearby Peace Arch border crossing or north to Richmond and Vancouver. A plethora of ethnic restaurants and the buzz of downtown are just a short commute away.

But why leave home at all? Morgan Creek Golf Course is just around the corner and shopping is a breeze at Grandview Corners, The Shops at Morgan Crossing, Wal-Mart Supercentre and Thrifty's. Schedule a dinner with friends at Milestones Grill, The Keg or the Cactus Club Café, all minutes from your front door. Treat yourself to a pedicure at one of the many spas close by or head to the beach at White Rock with a good book. The Heights is about great choices – and lots of them.
