Offering North Shore living and a modern lifestyle, condos at Tatlow Homes are selling out quickly in North Vancouver. Already 50 per cent sold, the collection of contemporary homes by Spring Olive Development features one- to three-bedroom plus den suites. Prospective buyers are encouraged to book an appointment by calling 604-765-1766 or register here for the latest details.

Delivering affordable, modern luxury, Tatlow Homes provides a new level of quality compared to the typical apartment. The spacious units range in size from 722 square feet to 1,348 square feet, and boast six-foot high bay windows. The condos feel open and inviting with high ceilings, wood laminate floor living areas and ample storage space. Generous balconies allow natural light to pour in, and an electric fireplace provides a cozy touch. Perfect for daily use and entertaining guests, the thoughtfully-designed kitchens are outfitted with high-quality finishes and stainless steel appliances. Homeowners can also customize their condos by choosing a colour scheme.

Situated in a central neighbourhood, Tatlow Homes provides quick access to daily essentials and amenities. Ideal for families, many schools are around the corner, along with medical centres, banks and shopping centres. At the nearby indoor/outdoor mall, Park Royal, residents can shop for the latest fashion trends, or dine at various cafes and restaurants. Residents can also sit back and relax at Ambleside Beach, which is a favourite hot spot among many West and North Vancouver locals. In addition, Grouse Mountain and Capilano Suspension Bridge are close by, providing various recreational activities for residents to enjoy. The Lion's Gate Bridge is minutes away, providing quick access to downtown Vancouver. For more information call 604 765 1766, email info@pezzente.com or visit tatlowhomes.ca.
