Urban Village of Libra Luxury Homes at Suter Brook Port Moody Real Estate

A contradiction defied. A dream defined. The promise of the Urban Village at Suter Brook in Port Moody is one that, while often made is seldom kept. As strongly as the concept of a community that offers uptown excitement together with rural charm inspires the imagination, it has, in the past, proven difficult to achieve in execution. When we set out to create Suter Brook Port Moody as the defining example of the Urban Village, we faced challenges demanding a total re-think of how a home becomes a haven and how a collection of homes becomes a community of individuals who, apart from their separate passions, are kindred spirits sharing coming ground. Suter Brook. Your life. Your village. Near + Far at Suter Brook real estate Port Moody offerings. AT Suter Brook we believe that, in brining the best of life close to thome, one can enver go too far. Our search for the perfect location led us just twenty five minutes from Vancouver to where Burrard Inlet meets the mountains in Port Moody real estate. Here, on a pristine twenty two acre location adjacent to seventeen miles of waterfront, we proceeded to create an entirely self contained urban village for an eclectic array of people with a sense not only of community, but of responsibility toward it. Urban + Village – Near + Far at Port Moody’s Suter Brook neighbourhood. Steps to the West Coast Express and future Evergreen Rapid Transit Line, 25 minutes to downtown Vancouver, minutes to SFU and walk to beaches and public parks! Passion + Practicality. Where you live complements how you live at Suter Brook in Port Moody condo pre-sales real estate. Home should provide individual comfort in a climate of community and convenience. At Suter Brook, Port Moody real estate market is the heart of an inspired community sharing access to amenities including: a recreationa centre with a full-size squash court, a pool with steam and sauna facilities, together with fantastic retailers including a Starbucks and Thrifty Foods, as well as financial services offered through Vancity and TD Canada Trust. All above secure underground parking and a short walk from express transportation to downtown Vancouver. Urban + Village = Passion + Practicality at Suter Brook in Port Moody BC. Community + REsponsibility – It’s in our nature to find joy in our lives and pleasure in the company of others. We aspire to be part of a Suter Brook condo community of individuals together dedicated to making the world, including our own, a better place. At Suter Brook, our unprecedented commitment to an extraordinary and sustainable quality of life is reflected in environmental construction and practices that inclue green roofing, plazas free of motorized vehicles and over twelve acres of protected greenspace and streams. With 55% protected green space, underground secure parking, fully equipped gym, yoga studio, salmon-bearing stream and green roofs, the Port Moody real estate community at Suter Brook is raising the awareness of Built Green spaces in BC. Details + Perfect – Just as an idea inspires, its execution impresses. In every Suter Brook pre-construction home, masterful design is rendered in materials sourced from around the world to bring comfort, conveinece and pride to yours. From the warmth of woods such as walnut and teak to the simplicity of chrome bathroom fixtures, stainless steel appliances and granite countertops, the smallest details warrants the most thorough consideration and reflects a commitment to quality that is muc more than skin deep at the Suter Brook condo homes in Port Moody real estate BC. Pace + Place – Everyone is different. This simple but important truth is the foundation upon which Suter Brook master planned community is built. Choose from the three distinct and lifestyle defining residential options. Libra at Suter Brook centres life with luxury low-rise condos situated between the Suter Brook Greenway and the Village Square.
