Aalto Townhomes

Now Selling

Located in a quiet Coquitlam neighbourhood, is the newest addition to the Intracorp Townhome Collection – Aalto Townhomes. This quiet mountain-side townhome village is a rare and special place where the conveniences of an urban centre are just a few blocks away. Even closer is the private amenity building – yours to enjoy with friends and family. Work out in the fitness studio, host a party in the great room, or take a cue from the Scandinavians and relax by the outdoor fireplace. The Scandinavian inspiration doesn't stop there. Interiors have been designed with timeless simplicity in mind – finishes that aren't going out of style.
