Crossing at Belmont

Two, five-storey purpose-built rental buildings located in Langford, BC

Crossing at Belmont consists of two, five-storey purpose built rental buildings totalling 156 units, located in Langford, BC. Part of the Belmont master planned community, living at Crossing at Belmont will be enhanced by 160,000 square feet of retail and commercial shops in the upcoming Belmont Market, including a landmark Thrifty Foods. This unique urban community alongside the Galloping Goose Trail sets a new standard for rental living in the West Shore. Scheduled for completion in the Fall of 2019, Crossing at Belmont features meticulously designed units that epitomize ease and convenience. Features such as bike-washing & repair station, underground kayak storage, and pet grooming station will cater to the active lifestyles of our residents seeking healthy, urban-meets-suburban living.
