Complete with smart technology and room to work from home, every square foot of Kennedy is stylish and highly usable, ready for today's family.

Best Multi-Family Kitchen Georgie Award Winner

Named in recognition of the abundant maple trees, the productive farmland and proximity to the Fraser River originally drew settlers from afar to Maple Ridge. Today, Kennedy offers a nod to time gone by, while remaining thoroughly modern. It has been built for those ready to put down roots in an incredible, connected and historic neighbourhood.
