LIGHT, BRIGHT & MODERN

The modern, spacious interiors of Westgate have been designed to reflect the style of city living, as well as capture the natural essence of the parks and greenspace around them. Together they create homes with a style that is effortlessly elegant, distinctly modern, and welcoming in every sense.

Along with their distinctive style, the homes of Westgate's have also been created to accommodate every need of modern family living. The open-concept designs give everyone personal spaces to retreat to when they want some alone time, as well as create great gathering spaces to hang out and spend time together.

Combined with the quality finishes and craftsmanship you'll find in every home, Westgate represents a level of style, practicality and elegance that is truly rare.
