BEAU

How homes are built matters. At every step of its evolution Beau has been designed for artful dwelling and made for life. Built with premium mass timber construction, each rowhome is more sustainable, quiet, and refined than the average home.

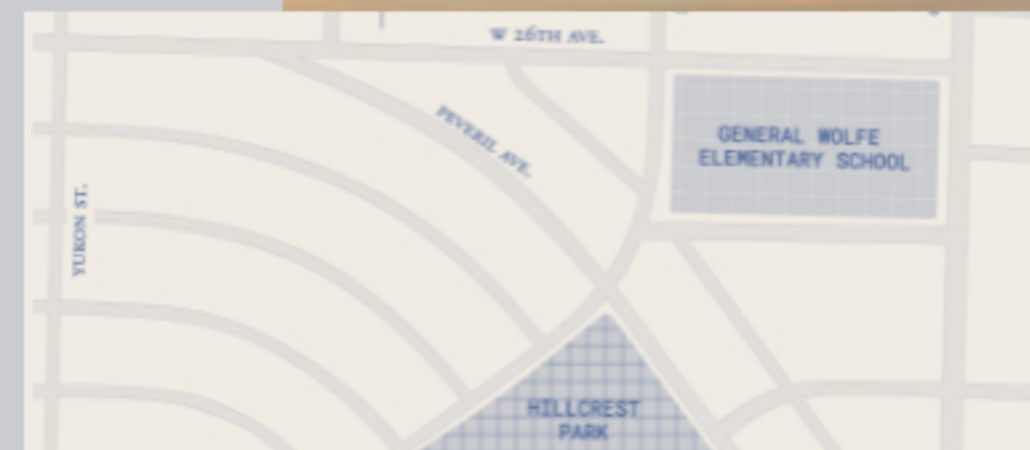

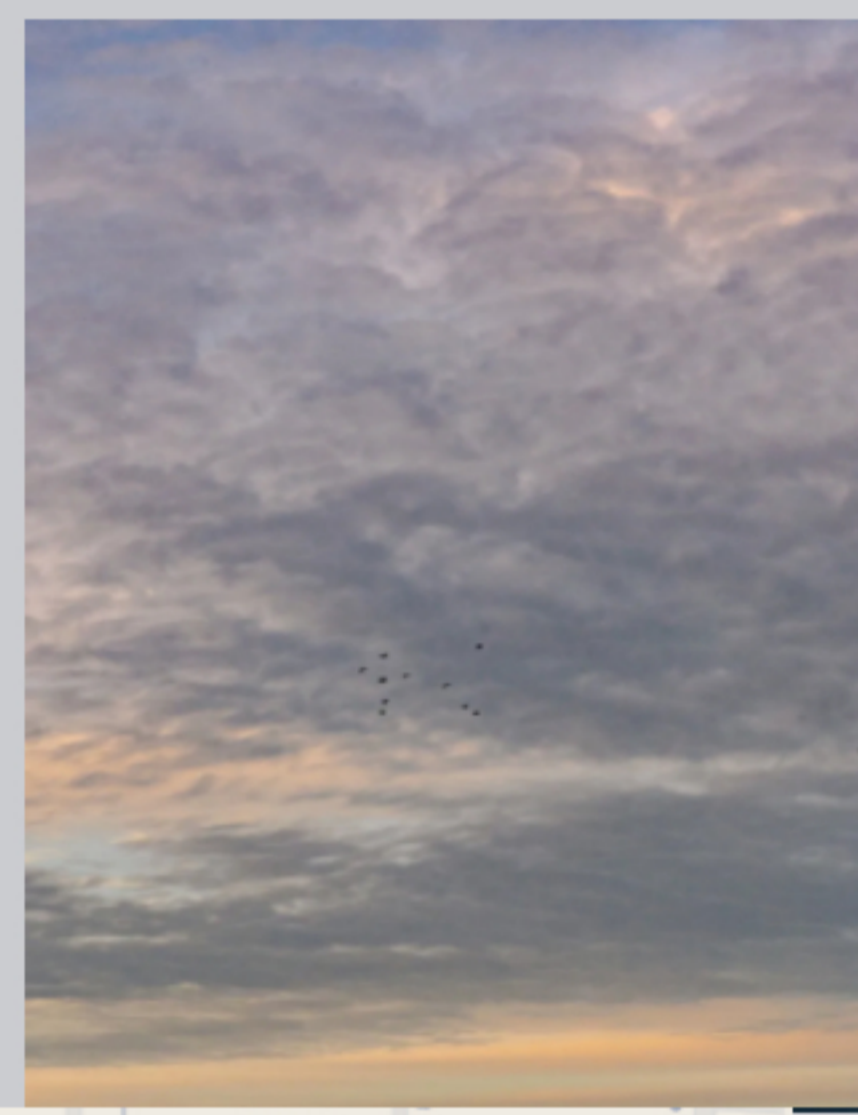

Sophisticated interiors with elevated design details allow for tranquility and peace inside, providing a welcoming escape from the bustle of the city. With a private garden space and no one above or below, each of the six row homes is truly an elegant sanctuary positioned within the walkable Riley Park community.

THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

Situated in one of Vancouver's beautiful single-family residence neighbourhoods, Beau is surrounded by parks and boutique shopping within a desirable and highly walkable community.

With lush Hillcrest Park steps away, and the amenities of both Cambie Village and Main Street close by, the Riley Park community is known for its greenspaces, retailers, and family-friendly feel.

Tucked away, one block off of King Edward Avenue on the quiet corner of Columbia & West 26th, Beau provides sought-after schools, a warm community ambiance, and easy accessibility- everything is within reach from this ideal central location.
