

Make memories possible.

Here in Langley, home means more than just a house. Home is where memories are framed, where growth is penciled on a door-frame, and where children's laughter rings through every storey.

Cascadia is built for these moments. With StreetSide's community-driven passion, this Willoughby neighbourhood is comprised of a variety of 2, 3 and 4-bedroom townhomes, thoughtfully designed with families in mind.

Build a sustainable future.

Growing with Langley means heading into the future on the right foot. Cascadia presents a handful of net-zero ready homes, showcasing eco-friendly and energy-efficient solutions.

These homes are equipped with a range of cutting-edge features that foster a healthier living environment, including heat pumps, high-efficiency windows, induction cooktops and solar panel hookups. By investing in a net-zero ready home, homeowners will benefit from improved comfort, health and savings for years to come.

What makes your house a home?
