THE ANSWER TO A CONNECTED, URBAN-LIFE

Life on Garden Drive

East Van has always been a place people are proud to call home. It's a cultural and community hub with deep and diverse roots, from Trout Lake farmer's market to the eclectic shops of Commercial Drive to the murals of Main Street. The city looks east for great eateries and breweries, plays at the Cultch, Italian Day on The Drive, and that unmistakable sense of community.

Be part of a rapidly growing community.

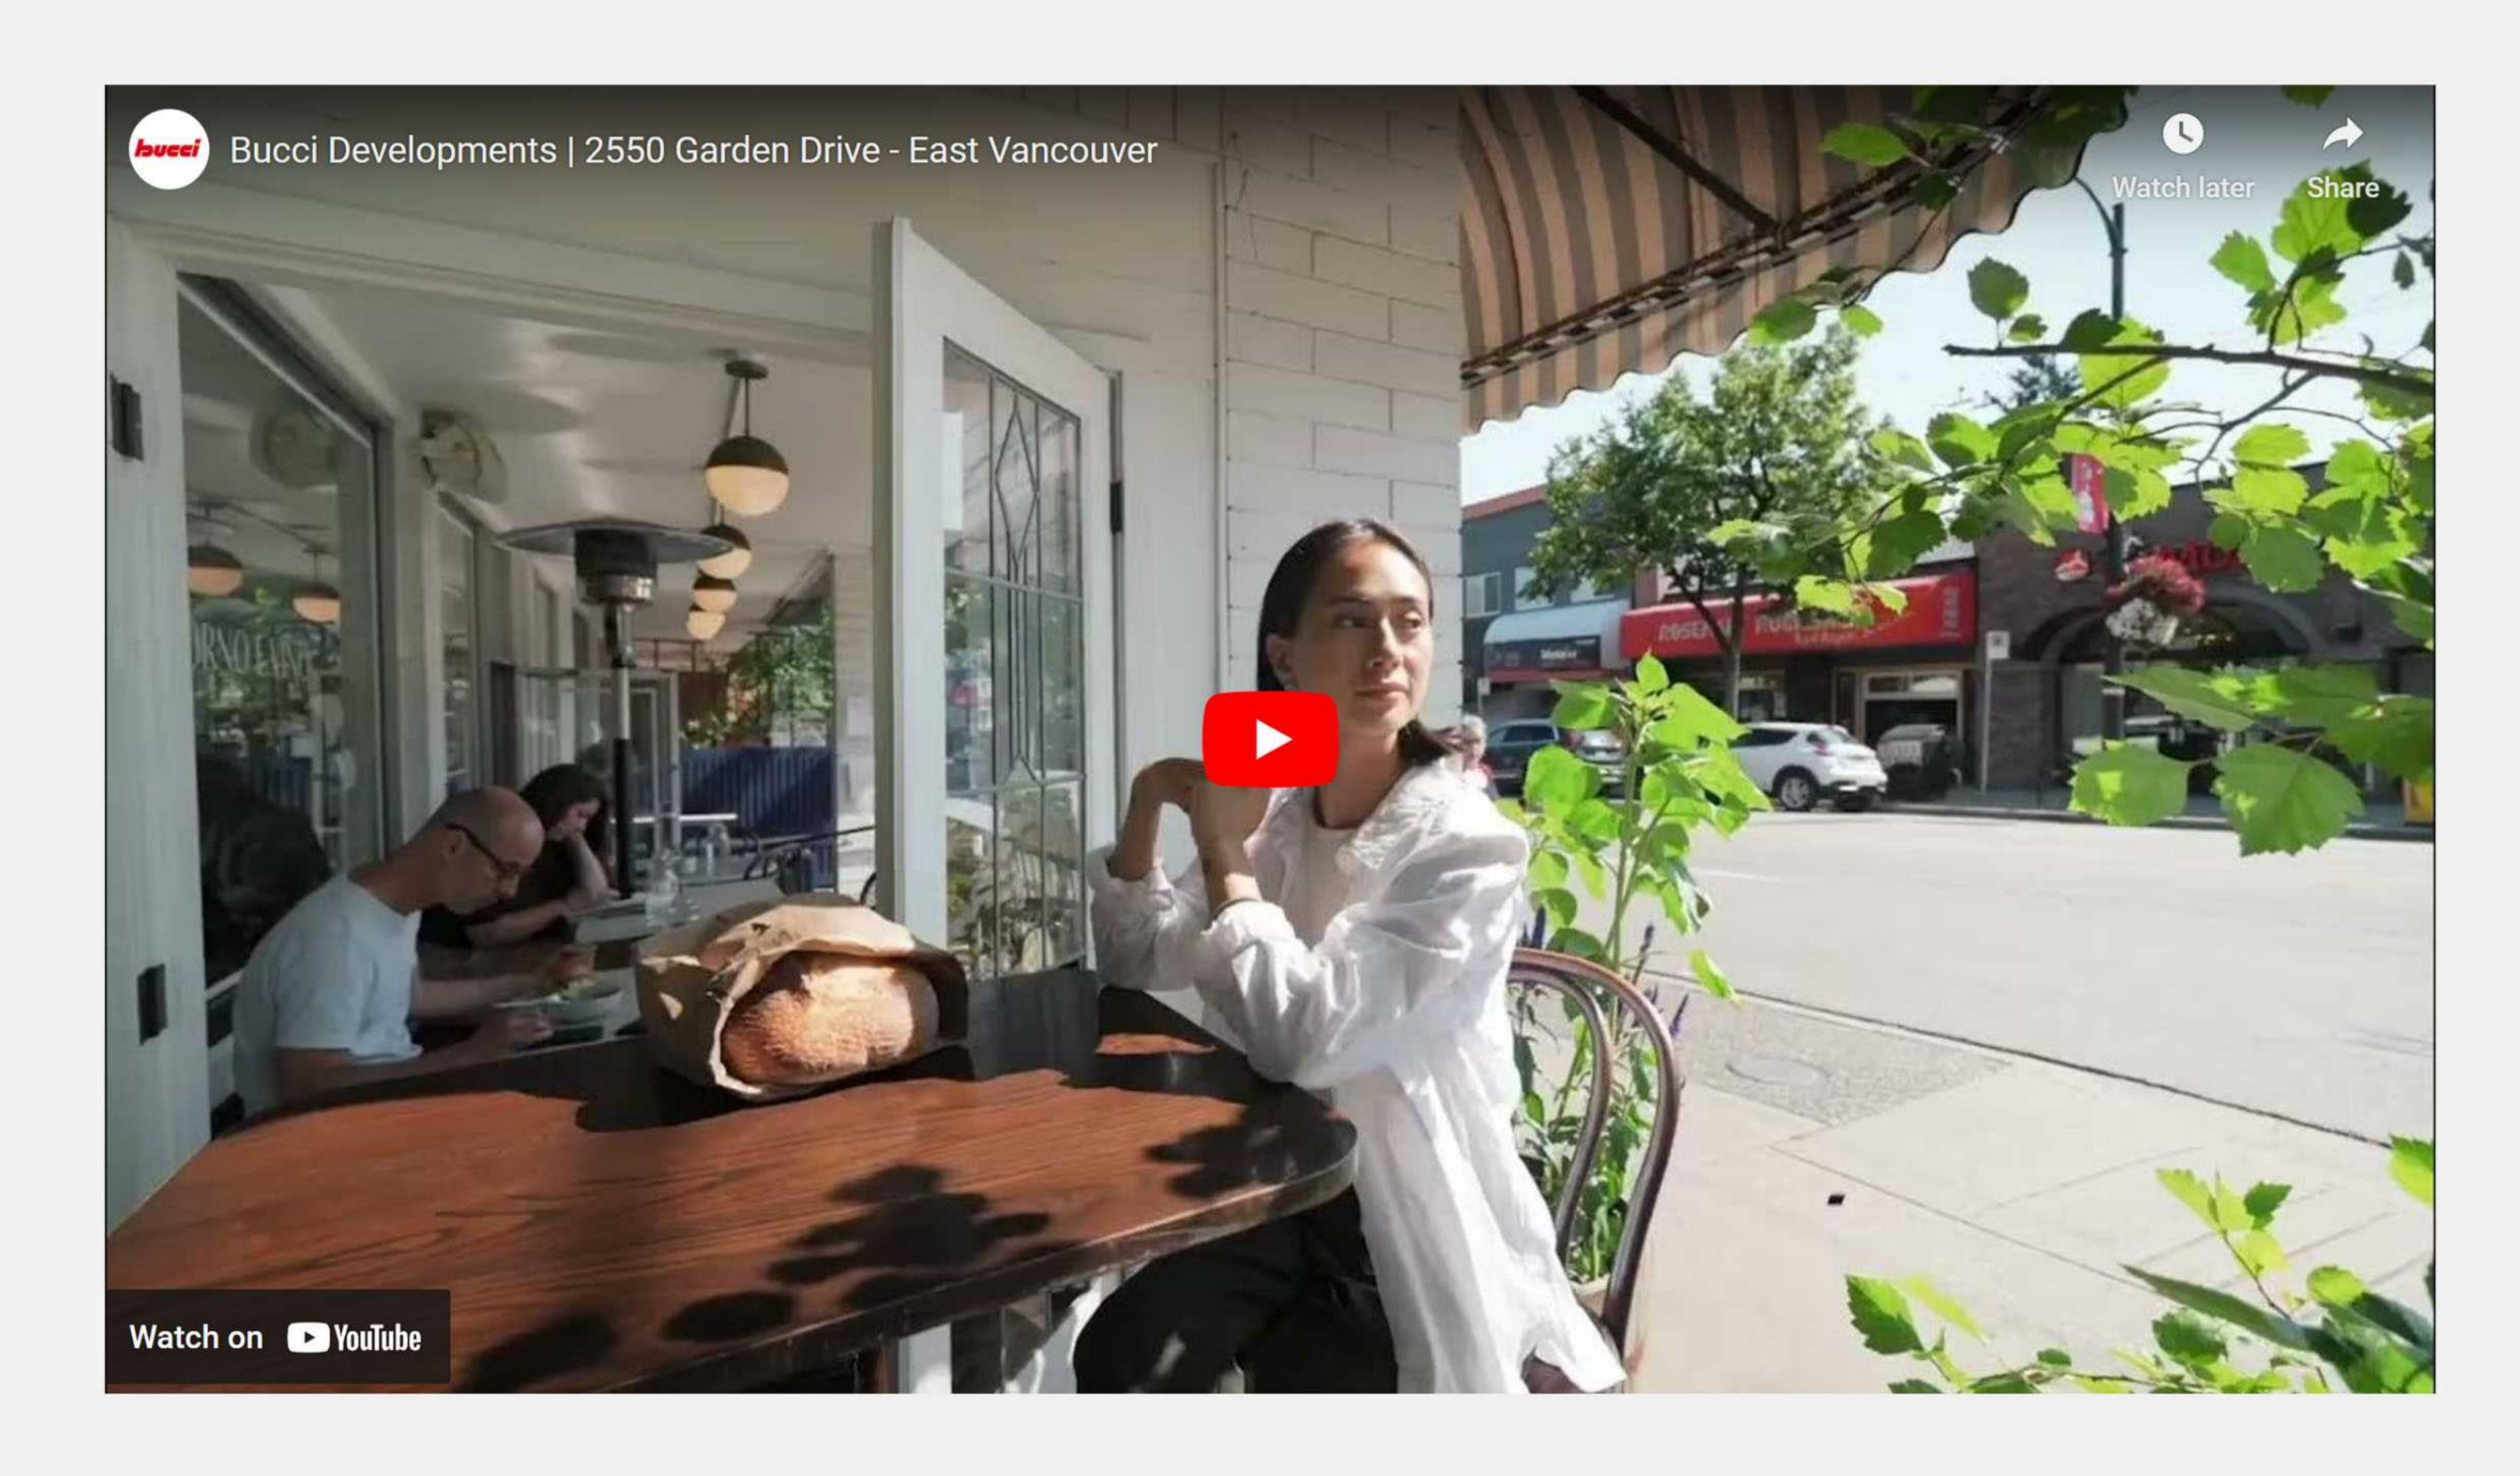

Establish roots and allow East Van to flourish while welcoming over 8 new communities to the area including Popolo, Grafia, The Cut, Woodland Block and Garden 11 as your new neighbours.

Connected to everything.

Conveniently located just an 12-minute walk from the Commercial-Broadway Skytrain station, the entire city is within reach via the Expo and Millennium lines.

Live amongst the trees

East Van offers some of the city's best parks including John Hendry Park, Grandview Park, and McSpaden Park, offering plenty of outdoor activities and community events.
