Marcie Panah BSc, MA
Personal Real Estate
Corporation

Marcie was raised in Toronto and has spent much of the last decade in Vancouver earning a master's degree at Simon Fraser University, raising her young son and establishing herself as a leading realtor.

Marcie's approach to real estate is planted firmly in her history and character.

"I believe in the importance of home and family in the life of every child and so when working with all of my clients, but particularly those with children, I am determined to help them make the best possible decision – a decision that fits with their long-term family goals."

Achieving an advanced university degree requires disciplined research and analysis. Marcie brings that experience to her work as a real estate agent. Analyzing all available data on each property and determining the effects on long-term value and livability is not a simple task. Without this information, you may not end up with the home and investment you think you bought. Are there issues with the strata property? Is the neighbourhood school likely to be closed? Will rezoning bring a big box store or a pub to the area? What are the crime statistics? Marcie will root out the truth behind the facts to make certain that your decision is fully informed.

"I am not in this career to make fast money and then move on. I am dedicated to my community and my reputation. I know that how I work and live will determine many of the choices my son makes in his life, and I am determined to provide the best possible example. My goal is to match the buyer and seller perfectly – when this happens everyone is happy! Children are so important to the future of our community, and it is for this reason that I direct a significant portion of my fees toward children's charities."
